SECTIONS.

Any member, or group of members, is privileged to form a Section for the pursuit of any study or intellectual occupation, and to apply to the Rules Committee for the assignment of the East Room on a stated evening not incompatible with prior arrangements.

Admission to Sections has been within their own discretion, and usually upon formal proposal and election.

The use of the East Room by the Ladies of the Society during the afternoon may be granted.

HISTORICAL AND GEOGRAPHICAL SECTION.

This Section was organized in May, 1880. It ceased to hold meetings in 1887. On November 30th, 1889, it was reorganized. In 1895 it was again suspended.

LANGUAGES.

This Section ceased in 1884 to hold its meetings at the Society's rooms. In 1891 it ceased altogether.

SECTION FOR GENERAL DEBATE.

This Section held its first meeting on April 21, 1880. It did not survive the year 1883.

FINE ARTS.

A Section bearing this name, and devoted to Music, was formed in the summer of 1880, but was disbanded.

RULES FOR THE USE OF ROOMS.

- I. The rooms shall be opened at 2 and closed punctually at 10 P. M.
- II. The regular entrance to the rooms shall be by the West door, except on occasion of the monthly meetings.
- III. No one shall be admitted to the East Room during the session of any Section, except the members thereof, or upon their invitation, extended through a member in attendance.
- IV. Each Section shall provide itself with a placard denoting that it is in session, to be hung during its session upon the outside of the door leading into the inner passage.
- V. Smoking in these rooms will not be allowed under any circumstances.
- VI. Loud conversation shall not be indulged in.
- VII. It is forbidden to mark or deface any paper, periodical, or book belonging to the Society, by drawing, comment, or correction, or to clip or otherwise mutilate it.
- VIII. No paper, periodical, or book belonging to the Society shall be taken from the rooms under any circumstances.

IX. In order to the observance of the last two rules especially, and for the better preservation of order, it is recommended that members do not permit their children under fifteen years of age to frequent the rooms.

X. No visitor shall be admitted at any time to the rooms except by invitation of and in company with a person entitled through membership to the privileges of the rooms ; and no visitor not a specially invited guest of the Society shall be admitted to any business meeting

XI. The person having charge of the rooms shall promptly report any infringement of these rules.

[By vote of the Society of June 5, 1880, the families of deceased members are continued in the privileges of the Reading-Room.]

CURATOR'S REPORT.

ORANGE, NOVEMBER 2, 1895.

To the President and Members of the New England Society :

The use of the rooms shows a small decrease on last year as follows : last year, 1666 persons visited the rooms ; this year, 1392, divided as follows :

1894	Ladies.	Gentlemen.	Total.
November.....	64	90	154
December	68	105	173
1895
January.....	65	95	160
February.....	94	124	218
March.....	115	120	235
April.....	53	84	139
May.....	35	75	110
June.....	26	38	64
July.....	5	10	15
August.....	6	7	13
September.....	15	28	43
October	21	49	70
	567	825	1392

The usual periodicals have been continued as follows : Forum, Popular Science Monthly, Fortnightly Review, North American Review, Punch, Century, Harper's and Scribner's

Magazines, Atlantic Monthly, Nineteenth Century, Nation, Portfolio, London Graphic, Fliegende-Blätter and Life, which subscriptions expire with the December number. As was reported last year, the society owns a large number of pamphlets which are of real interest and value, but the bound library has been so little used by the members that the arrangement and cataloging of these would not seem to be called for at the present time. For the same reason it was thought unwise to expend the small balance of the Library Fund, or to ask an appropriation from the Society to bind the periodicals that have been accumulating, the Curator believing that if money be expended it should be in the direction of creating more general interest in its meetings. He recommends that the question of a larger use of the Society rooms be made a special matter of discussion among the officers, and steps taken to acquaint members who rarely visit them with its advantages.

The Society continues to be greatly indebted to Mr. Garrison for his valuable contribution of pamphlets, to the number of 250, and six books during the past year.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWARD L. KELLOGG, Curator.

DECEMBER 31, 1894.

CONSTITUTION.

I.

THIS Society shall be known as THE NEW ENGLAND SOCIETY OF ORANGE. Its objects shall be to commemorate and foster the virtues of the Fathers of New England, and to cultivate social relations among its members.

II.

Any person of full age, being the native, or the son of a native, of any of the New England States, and any other person who may sympathize with the objects of this Society, may become a member on being elected according to the Constitution and By-Laws thereof, and paying the sum of five dollars to the Treasurer.

III.

The property and concerns of said Society shall be managed and directed by a Board of Officers, members of said Society, consisting of a President, two Vice-Presidents, six Counsellors, a Secretary and a Treasurer, to be elected and appointed annually, at such time and place, within the city of Orange, as shall be provided for by the By-Laws of said Association ; and to hold office until their successors are duly elected. The Board shall have power to fill its own vacancies.

IV.

Amendments to this Constitution may be proposed at the Annual Meeting, but shall be acted upon only after the lapse of three months, and shall require for their adoption a two-thirds vote of the members present at a meeting called for that purpose, or at the next Annual Meeting.

BY-LAWS.

MEMBERSHIP.

I.

THE total number of active members shall not exceed three hundred.

II.

The name of any person duly proposed and seconded for membership, by letters addressed to the Membership Committee, shall be posted on the Bulletin Board for a period of not less than six weeks previous to action thereon. Such person shall become a member upon election, as provided in Article XIV., and upon the payment of an initiation fee of five dollars, together with the annual dues for the current year, to the Treasurer, within thirty days after the notification of his election. The annual fees shall be five dollars, and shall be payable on the first day of April. But any person so elected may become a life member upon the payment of the sum of fifty dollars at one time. All members shall be required to sign the Constitution.

Honorary members may be elected at the Annual Meeting of the Society by the unanimous vote of the members present.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

III.

The election of officers and of members of the Committee on Membership, as hereinafter provided, shall take place at the Annual Meeting. Immediately after the meeting has been called to order, the presiding officer shall appoint a judge of election and two tellers, who shall forthwith declare the polls open and shall keep them open for the period of one hour. The Recording Secretary shall furnish printed ballots, which shall contain the names of all persons to be voted for who shall have been nominated by the Nominating Committee, as hereinafter provided, and also ballots containing the names of any other nominees, upon the written request of ten members of the Society. The judge and tellers shall proceed to count and announce the result of the ballot as soon as possible after the polls are closed, and the newly-elected officers shall be installed forthwith. In the event of a failure to elect at any ballot, a further ballot shall be taken in such manner as the majority of the members present shall direct. A majority vote shall be necessary to elect the President, but a plurality vote shall elect in all other cases. The order of the Counselors shall be determined by the number of votes received respectively.

BOARD OF OFFICERS.

IV.

The Board of Officers elect shall meet within ten days after the Annual Meeting for the appointment of its own committees, etc., of the Corresponding Secretary and the Curator for the year ensuing ; a majority of the Board constituting a quorum for the transaction of business. At other meetings the Board may be governed by its own rules ; but the approval of a majority shall be necessary to all appropriations of money.

V.

The President, or, in his absence, either of the Vice-Presidents, or, if these three officers are absent, any two Counsellors, may call a special meeting of the Board of Officers.

VI.

The Board of Officers may, by the concurring votes of two-thirds of all its members, given viva voce and entered on the Minutes, suspend from enjoying the privileges of the Society any member who may be guilty of gross misbehaviour or scandalous or dishonest conduct. Such suspension shall continue until revoked by a vote of two-thirds of the members of the Board of Officers, or until the suspended member is restored to the Society by the votes of two-thirds of the members present at an annual meeting of the Society. The Society has the right to expel for cause on the vote of two-thirds present at any meeting, after due presentation by the Board and notice to the party charged.

VII.

There shall be two Standing Committees of the Board of Officers, each composed of five members. One shall be called The Committee of Public Welfare, whose duty it shall be to examine and report upon such questions of local public interest as may from time to time be referred to it by the Society. The other shall be called The Committee of Charities, whose duty it shall be faithfully to distribute and expend, according to the Constitution and By-Laws of the Society, all moneys appropriated by the Society or the Board of Officers for charitable purposes and received by the Committee for that object.

VIII.

The Board of Officers may appropriate a portion of the annual income of the Society, not exceeding one-tenth, to the relief of indigent and unfortunate persons of New England origin. All other appropriations shall be made by the Society ; but such as exceed fifty dollars, except for regular expenses, must receive the approval of the Board.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

IX.

The President, or, if he is absent, the First Vice-President, or, if they are both absent, the Second Vice-President, or, if these three officers are absent, a chairman selected by the meeting, shall preside at the meetings of the Society and of the Board of Officers.

X.

The Recording Secretary shall keep a correct account, in a book to be provided for that purpose, of the proceedings of the Society and of the Board of Officers, notify members of the times of meeting, and perform such other duties as the Board shall direct. He shall advise the Committee on Membership of all vacancies, and notify the new members of their election as soon as informed thereof.

XI.

The Corresponding Secretary shall conduct the correspondence with other societies, shall be ex officio a member of the Lecture Committee, and shall edit the Society's publications.

XII.

The Treasurer shall have the custody of the funds and securities of the Society, and pay and dispose of the same in pursuance of the orders of the Society, or of the Board of Officers, as hereinbefore provided, and shall render an account thereof as often as called upon to do so, and regularly at the Annual Meeting. He shall receive the membership fees and dues. The annual dues shall be payable on the first day of April, or, in the case of new members (who shall not pay twice within the same calendar year), as soon as they qualify. The Treasurer shall also report to the Recording Secretary monthly the names of all candidates who shall have qualified or who shall have failed to qualify. He shall also report any member who persistently neglects to pay his annual dues, whereupon his name shall be stricken from the roll.

XIII.

The Curator shall have charge of the Library and of the objects of curiosity or of science which may be acquired by the Society, and shall co-operate with the Committee on Rules and Rooms in framing regulations for his special department.

COMMITTEES.

XIV.

There shall be a Membership Committee, consisting of nine members, which shall be elected by ballot at the regular meeting in June, 1888, and shall be divided by lot into three classes of three members each ; the terms of office of each shall be, respectively, six months, a year and six months, and two years and six months, and thereafter the term of office of each class elected shall be three years.

Members to replace the outgoing class shall be elected in each year by the Society at its Annual Meeting, as hereinbefore provided. No elective officer shall be a member of this Committee, and the names of its members shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the Society's rooms. No member of this Committee shall propose or second the nomination of any candidate for membership in the Society. The duty of the Committee shall be to consider the names of any persons who may have been proposed and seconded for membership as provided in Section II. The proceedings of the Committee shall be secret and confidential. If, after due inquiry, the application shall be approved by a vote of the Committee, the names of the persons proposed shall be presented to the Society at a regular meeting; whereupon a ballot shall be taken and the candidate shall be declared elected, provided not more than five negative nor less than ten affirmative votes are cast.

The election of each new member shall be immediately reported to the Secretary and Treasurer, and his name shall be publicly posted for a period of sixty days thereafter.

XV.

There shall be a Committee on Rules and Rooms of five members; an Auditing Committee of two, to audit the accounts of the Treasurer; a Library Committee of five, of whom the Curator shall be one; a Lecture Committee of five, of whom the Corresponding Secretary shall be one; a Committee on Local History; a Committee on Amendments of three; and a Committee on the Celebration of Forefathers' Day of five—all appointed annually by the Society on the President's nomination. These committees shall report to the Society at the Annual Meeting and as often as shall be deemed necessary.

XVI.

The Committee on Rules and Rooms shall report to the Society, for its approval, regulations for the use of the rooms, and may, in the interval between two meetings, decide any questions that arise ; it shall also have exclusive charge of the economy and decoration of the Society's rooms, but shall incur no expense without the approval of the Society.

XVII.

The Library Committee shall report the needs of the Reading Room and the Library, and propose means for their accommodation and maintenance. They shall see that the books and periodicals are carefully treated, the Society's ownership in them plainly marked, and the source from which they are obtained suitably acknowledged.

XVIII.

The Lecture Committee, which shall be appointed at the monthly meeting in April, shall arrange and conduct any course of Lectures or other entertainments which the Society may authorize, and shall be limited in its expenditures by the appropriations made therefor.

XIX.

The Committee on Amendments shall receive all amendments proposed by members, and shall report on them to the Society as hereinafter provided.

XX.

The Committee on Local History shall collect and secure for the Society such facts and traditions of the early and local history of the community as may seem worthy of perservation, and shall report at the Annual Meeting, or so often as occasion may require.

XXI.

The Committee on the Celebration of Forefathers' Day, which shall be appointed at the monthly meeting in April, shall arrange for and carry out such celebration of Forefathers' Day as may be authorized, and shall be limited in its expenditure by the amount appropriated therefor.

XXII.

At the June meeting the President shall appoint a Nominating Committee of five members, which shall report at the October meeting nominations for the Board of Officers and members of the Membership Committee to be voted for at the Annual Meeting in November.

MEETINGS OF THE SOCIETY.

XXIII.

A monthly meeting of the Society shall be held at the Society's rooms on the first Saturday in every month, except July, August and September, and shall be called to order at 8 o'clock, P. M.

Due notice will be given to each member by the Recording Secretary through the mail.

Twenty members shall constitute a quorum for the election of officers, or for the appropriation of money; fifteen members shall constitute a quorum for the election of members or transaction of any other business ; but eleven members may adjourn a meeting to a day specified.

XXIV.

The Annual Meeting shall be held at the Society's rooms on the first Saturday in November of each year, or at such other time and place as the Board of Officers may direct, giving at least one week's notice in two of the Orange papers, and shall be called to order at 8 o'clock, P. M.

XXV.

The President, or, if he is absent from the city, one of the Vice-Presidents, shall, on the written request of any ten members of the Society, call a special meeting thereof. Due notice of the time of such meeting shall be given on the Bulletin Board of the Society, and by advertisement in two of the Orange papers. The business to be considered shall be expressly stated in such notice, and no other business shall be transacted.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

XXVI.

The order of business at the Society's meetings shall be :

1. The Reading of the Minutes.
2. Reports of Committees when called for.
3. Unfinished business.
4. General business.

All questions of parliamentary practice shall be decided by "Cushing's Manual."

AMENDMENTS.

XXVII.

Amendments or alterations of the By-Laws may be made by a two-thirds vote of members present and voting at any regular or special meeting of the Society, provided the proposed changes shall have been reported by the Amendment Committee, by posting a copy of the same on the Bulletin Board of the Society for at least two weeks, and a notice that an amendment will be offered shall have been in the Secretary's call for the meeting.

Any By-Law may be suspended at any meeting by unanimous vote of the members present.

VACANCIES.

XXVIII.

All Officers and Committees, except as herein otherwise provided, shall continue in office for one year, or until their successors are chosen; but vacancies which may occur from any cause may be filled at any monthly meeting of the Society, according to the modes of election prescribed.

In the case of the President, Recording Secretary or Treasurer, notice of election must be given at least one week previously in two Orange papers.
